DETAILED ACTION

This communication is in response to amendment filed 6/4/2008.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fails to teach or render obvious the limitation of independent claims. The Applicant has claims a document exchange method.

Independent claim 1 discloses a method for exchanging documents were the document is transformed from a standard format into an altered document formation for a second party.

Independent claim 23 discloses method for exchanging documents were buyers and seller can exchange document without the need to consider each other's native formats since the document is transformed from a standard format into an altered document formation.

The following prior art references have been deemed most relevant to the allowed claim(s):

The closest prior art Ewald (PGPUB 2003/0014384) teaches a document exchange system with access control information from first party related to authorized viewers of the document. A capsule creator merges semi-structured document and access control information. The system includes a first party interface to a write dispatcher and a second part interface to a read dispatcher.

The closest prior art Frey (Book – Online Actions) teaches about online actions including pricing strategies including reserve prices and hidden sales prices. Frey also teaches about different types of auctions formats including: standard, reserve, butch, private, buy price, auto-extension and restricted access.

Claims 1-11 & 23-39 are allowed because Ewald and Frey references as discussed above as the Closest Prior art of record fails to teach or render obvious a method of transforming the document for the auction exchange between the first and second party.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
